ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class will be examined in the part of the course of study gone over in the Preparatory Department.

Candidates for a higher standing will be examined in the part of the course of study in College gone over by the class, to which they may desire admission.

The stated times for examination are Tuesday preceding Commencement, and the first day of the following Term.

No student will be permitted to rise to a higher class, or to obtain a degree, who has not sustained himself creditably on examination.

Students will be received at any time during the Session; but after entering, no deduction will be made for absence, except in cases of protracted sickness.

EXAMINATIONS

Of all the classes, the last week in January, and immediately preceding commencement.

A record will be kept by the Faculty of the scholarship and deportment of every student. Information concerning his proficiency and deportment will, when required, be communicated to the parent or guardian.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES.

Exhibitions of the Societies on the last Friday in January.

Commencement on the second Friday in June.

Declamation and Composition throughout the course.

On the day preceding commencement public addresses will be delivered before Societies connected with the College by gentlemen invited from abroad.

VACATIONS.

1. One week (from December 24th to January 2d.)

2. From Commencement to the first Monday in September.

Such students as are obliged by their circumstances to teach school are allowed to be absent for the purpose.

Unexcused absence from recitation, or from the county, without permission of the President, will subject the delinquent to reduction in his Department Column.

SESSIONS.

The scholastic year is divided into two terms.

1. From the first Monday in September to the last Friday in January.

2. From Monday after the last Friday in January to Commencement.

DEGREES.

1. Degrees shall be conferred only at Commencement, and by the authority of the Board of Trustees.

2. Students who have completed the regular course of study, and passed their final examination shall, if approved by the Faculty, be presented to the Board of Trustees at Commencement, as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Should a quorum of the Board not be present the Faculty may confer the degree.

Certificates will be given to irregular students for such part of the course of study as they may have completed.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, in the College classes, per term, - - -	$15 00
“ in the Preparatory Department, - - -	10 00
Contingent fee, per term, - - - - -	50

The amount of each term bill must be paid in advance to the Treasurer, whose certificate will be required before the student will be admitted to recitation.

Board may be obtained from $1 75 to $2 50 per week.

There are some expenses resulting from taxes voluntarily imposed by the Societies.

In incidental expenses, if the student is supplied with money, he is exposed to extravagant and immoral habits. To guard against this, it is suggested to parents to deposit funds with some one approved by the Faculty, who, for a trifling charge, will give particular attention to the pecuniary affairs of the student, and render an account at the close of each term.

It is earnestly recommended to all parents and guardians not to authorize the obtaining of credit, and not to pay debts unauthorized.

REMARKS.

All the books within the course may be obtained in Liberty on reasonable terms.

The College Library contains more than one thousand volumes, and will soon be greatly enlarged.

It is expected that extensive Philosophical and Chemical apparatus will be procured at an early period.

WILLIAM JEWELL COLLEGE

Is a spacious edifice, situated in the town of Liberty, Clay county, Missouri, four miles north of Baxter's Landing, on the Missouri river. A daily line of stages connects these points, and Liberty is connected by Telegraph with St. Joseph on the west, and with all the eastern and southern cities.

Any person desiring additional information can address the President or any member of the Faculty. Until the first Monday in September next, letters of enquiry should be addressed to Prof. Bradley, Liberty, Mo.
