The School of Theology.

General Statement.

THE School of Theology is located at Liberty, Clay Location.
County, Missouri, a city of 3,500 inhabitants, 15 miles from Kansas City. This city is thus suburban to the great railroad center of the Middle West, and is the finest location for a School of Theology, geographically considered, in the Mississippi Valley.

Liberty is reached by several trains a day over the Accessi-
Kansas City divisions of the Burlington, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Rock Island railroads; and bility.
from South Liberty, over the Wabash railroad, by hack, a distance of three and one-half miles.

The generous provision that William Jewell College has Advantages.
made for its students as regards classrooms, dormitories, boarding, library, literary societies and gymnasium, the College offers to the students of the School of Theology on the same liberal terms on which it makes this provision for its own students, viz.: that they pay the very moderate fees pertaining thereto. Young men occupying rooms in any of the dormitories have the privilege of taking their meals with the "William Jewell Boarding Club," which provides table board at actual cost.

For the use of this Club the Board of Ministerial Education erected the spacious and comfortable building known as the Vardeman Dining Hall.

Many students find congenial work, work fostering their Religious spiritual life, and at the same time giving them experience in Work.
their vocation of winning souls, and aiding them in working their way through school, in preaching to churches in the surrounding country.

Daily Prayer Meeting.

For many years a daily prayer meeting has been maintained. In this meeting a large number of students have tested the truth of the Psalmist's utterance: "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

To the New Student.

It is always best, if possible, to room in the dormitories and to board at the Club. If this is not possible, it is better for you to confer with the Treasurer in regard to a boarding place. If you need employment to help you through school, write the Treasurer, J. E. Cook, or consult him immediately on arriving at Liberty. The Young Men's Christian Association will be glad to assist you in every possible way. If you will write to R. E. McGraw, President Y. M. C. A., Liberty, Mo., telling him by what train you expect to reach Liberty, you will be met at the station on your arrival, and will be assisted in any way that you may require.

Correspondents.

Those wishing further information concerning admission, courses of study, and all other matters pertaining to the internal affairs of the College, may address the President, Dr. J. P. Greene, Liberty, Mo.

Historical.

Its Origin and Aim.

WILLIAM JEWELL COLLEGE had its origin in the conviction that the Baptists of Missouri needed a trained ministry, and so from the beginning its projectors had in view the founding of a college through which to give our young preachers, not only the desired training in the liberal arts and sciences, but also to make suitable provision for their training in those branches of theological study that would best fit them for their special work. This has made the education of students for the ministry a prominent work of the College from the first.

The steady growth of this school is the best evidence that can be had of its necessity as a distinct organization, and the number availing themselves of the specific work offered therein shows that the school offers what the student for the ministry needs. The fact that the School of Theology offers on completion of the courses presented a degree (Th. B.), Bachelor of Theology, in every way equal in scholastic efficiency to the B. A. in Literature or the B. A. in Science offered in the College, gives a dignity to the work that was not present when this work was associated with the work of the College as one of the departments. Its Growth.

The Committee of Administration (see p. 2) controls the affairs of this School, and the Board of Ministerial Education supervises the internal workings, passes upon the eligibility of students offering to matriculate, dispenses financial aid, and exercises a general and kindly watchcare over those enrolled. This friendly supervision is in every way beneficial to the student and wholesome in its effect on the Board.

Entrance.

TO some of the work of an elementary nature students of small degree of preparation may be admitted, but these students will be required to enter classes in the Academy of the College to make up their deficiencies. Degree of Preparation.

Students that have reached the standing of collegians in their literary work may enter any class for which their preparation renders them competent, and for the work then done credit will be given as leading to the degree of Bachelor of Theology, or to the Certificate of English Graduate in Theology.

Credentials.

The student must present to the Board of Ministerial Education either an official record of the church from which he comes, approving him as a student for the ministry, a license to preach the gospel, or papers of ordination to the gospel ministry.

Examination.

He will then be examined by the Board as regards evidences of conversion, call to the ministry, and soundness in doctrinal belief.

If a student who has once been examined and approved by the Board, but has left school without completing his course, returns and seeks admission, he shall be re-examined if he has been out of school for a period of one year.

Other Denominations.

Students from other denominations will be received on the same terms as those from Baptist churches, and shall enjoy the same privileges except that of receiving financial aid.

Examinations and Reports.

Three stated written examinations are held during the year, one at the end of each term. The questions propounded have numerical values attached, and if the values of the answers given amount to three-fourths of the aggregate valuation, the student is ranked in the "first division" of the class known as "Proficients." If at the examination of any class the answers of a student fall below fifty per cent. of the aggregate valuation, he is "conditioned" and required to attend the recitations of that class another year. If his answers fall below seventy-five per cent., but not below fifty per cent., he may be allowed the privilege of raising his grade at the next corresponding examination without further attendance upon the exercises of the class.

At the exercises of Commencement Day, those students that have attained a grade of 95 or more at their examinations will be announced as "Honor Men."

Graduation.

ANY student that has completed the Freshman and Sophomore courses of the college in either group (A) or (B) (see college catalogue), with an average grade of 75% in all of the studies of each year, and has not fallen below 60% in any one study, or presents work done elsewhere that may be accepted as an equivalent, and in addition thereto, completes all the required work in the School of Theology on the same condition as regards grades, may have the degree of Bachelor of Theology (Th. B.) conferred upon him and receive a diploma attesting thereto.

In addition to the course leading to the degree Th. B., there is offered a special course without Greek or Hebrew to such students as in the judgment of the Faculty would profit more by a course entirely in English. This special course is outlined under the courses of study, and upon its completion, the student will be granted a certificate as graduate in English Theology.

The only fees assessed against the student in the School of Theology are the regular fees for Matriculation and Graduation, $5.00 each.

Lectures.

Arrangements have been made with a number of denominational leaders both in and out of the state for a course of lectures on subjects dealing with applied Christianity. These lecturers include Dr. J. C. Armstrong, Dr. T. L. West, Rev. J. H. Dew, Dr. Henry C. Mabie of Boston. It is further expected to have lectures delivered through the year by men prominent in business and in the various professions.

Financial Aid.

ALL properly accredited students for the ministry receive free tuition. After the first year in school, worthy students for the ministry, who are in actual need of help, will be admitted to the benefits of the Ministerial Aid Fund, and in return for this favor they will be expected to perform some simple duties in connection with the college, the buildings, or the campus. This requirement is never waived, and is made for the express purpose of fostering in the minds of young men the spirit of self-help and self-respect.

Further information on the subject may be had from the Treasurer, J. E. Cook.

Courses of Study.

I. Exegetical.

THE ENGLISH BIBLE, 1-4.

Old Testament.—Professor Greene.

1. The Historical Books from Genesis to II. Samuel:

Special attention is given to the spelling and pronunciation of proper names, prominent persons, geography of Bible lands, periods of Old Testament history, contents of the books, etc. Fall term. Five hours per week. 3:15 p.m.

2. Historical and Poetical Books of the O. T. I. Kings to Song of Songs: Continuation of previous work in Historical books, and, in addition, attention will be given to the form, content and spirit of the poetical writings. Portions of them will be committed to memory. Winter term. Five hours per week. 3:15 p. m.

2a. Prophetical Books of the Old Testament: The object of this course is to make students familiar with the Prophets, their messages and their times. Spring term. Five hours per week. 3:15 p. m.

New Testament.—Professor Stafford.

3. The Gospels: A careful study of each book, with no special attempt at chronology or harmony. The principal object is to familiarize the student with the life of Christ as recorded by each of the four evangelists. Text-book, The American Standard Revision of the Bible. Fall term, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, 2:15 p. m.

4. The Acts and Epistles: Continuation of Course 3. No attempt is made during this first year's work in the New Testament to solve any particular question or date of chronology, that being left for the second year. Winter term, Daily, 2:15 p. m.

5. Biblical Introduction: A study of questions necessary to all Biblical Knowledge. Text-books, Biblical Antiquities, by E. C. Bissell; Biblical Geography, by J. L. Hurlbut, and The Bible, Its Origin and Nature, by Marcus Dods. Fall term, Daily, 10:00 a. m. Professor Stafford.

6, 7 and 8. Old Testament Interpretation: This is the second year on Old Testament work. More time will be spent on special sections and topics and more distinct emphasis on the vital doctrines revealed in the Old Testament. References will be given on contemporary history and archaeology, and questions of criticism will be discussed. The student will also be drilled in a sane method of Biblical interpretation. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. 11:00 a. m. Professor Evans.

9 and 10. New Testament Interpretation: In this, the second year's work in the New Testament, questions of harmony, chronology and interpretation will be discussed fully. The entire New Testament field will be covered with a degree of care and thoroughness impossible during first year work. The text will be the New Testament, and in addition some good work will be used as a basis for the harmonic study of the Gospels, and also some standard life of the Apostle Paul. References will be given to various

New Testament commentaries. Fall and Winter term, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, 2:15 p. m. Professor Stafford.

11. Biblical Theology of the Old Testament: It is the aim of this course to introduce the student to the earlier divisions of Biblical Theology. In Systematic Theology the knowledge derived from the Bible is arranged according to some logical or philosophical plan, while in Biblical Theology both knowledge and form are derived from the Bible itself. The theology of the Old Testament is studied as it unfolds itself in the Old Testament literature. Text-Book, The American Standard Revised Version, and some good manual of Old Testament Theology. Spring term. Five hours a week. 2:15 p. m. Professor Evans.

12. Biblical Theology of the New Testament: A study of theological ideas as developed in the New Testament and as peculiar to the writers or as receiving peculiar emphasis from them. Text-book, American Standard Revision. The Theology of the New Testament, by G. B. Stevens. Spring term. Four hours a week. No hour assigned. Professor Stafford.

13 and 14. Hebrew: This study prepares the learner for more accurate exegesis of the Word of God. During the year's study the student will be thoroughly drilled in the elements of the Hebrew language, and will thus be prepared for the further study of Hebrew, more thorough exegetical work and a better understanding of scholarly commentaries.

For text-books we shall use this year Harper's Method and Manual, and Harper's Elements of Hebrew. Winter and Spring terms. Four hours per week. 10:00 a. m. Professor Evans.

15 and 16. Greek New Testament: The four Gospels, the Epistle of James, the First Epistle to the Corinthians and the Epistle to the Hebrews. Systematic study and classification of the idioms of the New Testament and its divergences from classical usage. Robertson's Syllabus will be used. Fall term. Four hours per week. 11:00 a. m. Winter Term. Five hours per week. 11:00 a. m. Professor Tukey.

(Note) Additional work in both Hebrew and Greek will be given at the option of the student, classes and hours to be arranged with the professors of these departments.

1. Church History—Ancient and Mediaeval Eras: II. Historiral.

Among the subjects especially emphasized are the early Church, the New Testament canon, the union of church and state, the rise, growth and decline of the papacy, the conversion of the Germanic nations, scholasticism, humanism and the non-Catholic religious movements before the reformation. Recitations and lectures. Winter term. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. 10:00 a. m. Professor Griffith.

2. Church History—Modern Era: The Protestant Reformation in various countries, and the counter Roman Catholic Reformation, the struggles for religious liberty, missionary efforts, and the influence of science, philosophy and culture on religious creeds are the principal subjects discussed. Recitations and lectures. Spring term. Daily, 10:00 a. m. Professor Griffith.

3. Archaeology. Winter term. Three hours per week. 3:15 p. m.

5. Missions. Professor Evans. In this course a short History of Missions will be used as a text, and the modern missionary era will be studied with reference to its motives, methods and results. Spring term. Five hours per week.

I and 2. Systematic Theology: Text-book, Systematic Theology, by A. H. Strong. Revised edition, 3 volumes. III. Sytematic.

1. Fall term. Tuesday and Thursday, 11:00 a. m.

2. Winter term. Tuesday and Thursday, 11:00 a. m.

2a. Spring term. Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00 a. m.

Professor Stafford.

3. Apologetics: It is the aim in this course of study to indicate the defenses of Christianity, and to train men into efficiency as defenders of "The Faith." For a text-book we shall use Why is Christianity True? by Dr. E. Y. Mullins. Fall term. Five hours per week, 1:15 p. m. Professor Evans.

4. Comparative Religions: Winter term. Five hours per week, 1:15 p. m. Professor Evans.

5. Philosophy: History of Philosophy. (Elective Philosophy, or Phi. 6 in the College Course.) Spring term. Five days per week, 11:00 a. m.

IV. Practical.

1. Biblical Exposition: An expository study of portions of the English Bible. This course is intended especially for Ministerial students that have charge of churches and missions, to enable them to make the best use of the English Bible in their work. Winter term. Four days per week, 2:15 p. m. Professor Greene.

3 and 4. Homiletics: A study of the principles of preaching; practice in analysis of texts and development of subjects; critical study of sermons of great preachers. One sermon written in full required by each member of the class. Text-books: Preparation and Delivery of Sermons by Jno. A. Broadus and certain volumes of sermons to be selected. Fall and Winter terms. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 11:00 a. m. Professor Stafford.

(A prize is offered for the best sermon written by a member of the Class in Homiletics—provided that the work is of a sufficiently high quality.)

5. Pastoral Duties: The text-book for the first course will be Gladden's "Christian Pastor," supplemented by thirty lectures and a special study of the life of some great pastor. The fundamental facts in the pastor's life will be treated in this course. Winter term. Three days per week, 9:00 a. m. Professor Cook.

6. Ecclesiology: The second course will be open to all students who have taken the first course. Dargan's Ecclesiology will be the text-book, and there will be thirty lectures additional. The organized church and the problems of church government, discipline, finances and other such questions will be studied, together with the practical relation of the church to the Kingdom and denomination. Fall term. Three days per week, 9:00 a. m. Professor Cook.

7. Sunday Schools: It is the aim of this course to fill the same place in the training of workers for the Sunday School that the high-class normal school holds in the training of workers for the public school. It is open for pastors, superintendents and teachers, and is designed to afford an accurate teaching knowledge of the Bible and cognate subjects; an understanding of the individual and social nature of man, with special reference to the child; the training of the teacher in scientific religious pedagogy, and a practical knowledge of the best methods of organizing and conducting a Sunday School. The course is divided into four sections, namely: the Bible; the Pupil; the Teacher, and the School.

(a) The Bible. This course consists of an examination and criticism of methods of Bible study, and is intended to prepare pastors and teachers, not only to teach in the Sunday School, but also to conduct Bible Classes for a more thorough, systematic and practical study of the Bible than can be secured by following the International Series of Lessons.

(b) Psychology. A study of the nature and unfolding of the mind, with special reference to the child. It is designed to acquaint the teacher with the laws of mental life, that he may work in learning with them in accomplishing his task of imparting religious instruction to the pupil.

(c) Pedagogy. A scientific study of the laws of teaching, with special reference to their application to the work of the Sunday School.

(d) Sunday School Administration. The history, development, organization, equipment, grading and conduct of the Sunday School.

8. Stewardship: A study of the Bible doctrine of Stewardship as it relates to man's responsibility to God in the matter of personal service, and also his responsibility in the matter of the acquisition, the rise and the disbursement of wealth. The study of the problems of modern church finances will be included in this course.

9. Sociology: The problems of correction and care of the defective and dependent will be considered. The causes of poverty and the principles and methods of poor relief are explained. Visits will be made to institutions of interest. Dr. Charles W. Moore of Kansas City is a regular lecturer in this course. Other lecturers will also address the class. Lectures and assigned readings. Fall term. Daily, 11:00 a. m. Professor Griffith.

11 and 12. Public Speaking.

First term. Elementary: A theoretical and practical study of the nature of public speech, with the intent to help the student to a simple, direct and forceful manner of speaking. Original speeches and interpretation of selections. Days and hours to be arranged.

Second term. Brief Writing; Oral Debate; Extempore Speaking; Formal Oratory: Days and hours to be arranged.

As a preparation for this work, Rhetoric and English Prose Forms as found in the English 1 and 2 of the College course are necessary. The credit is five term hours. Professor Fruit.

In addition to this, Dr. Homer Cook of Kansas City will train the students in a sane method of delivery.

13. Hymnology. W. J. Frost.

This course involves a thorough and practical study of the best hymns, so as to give the student a good working knowledge of them; a more critical study of hymns and psalms, with regard to their adaptability to the music in the church; Practice in Hymn and Scripture Reading; Lectures and Text-Book. The latter has not yet been selected.

Ability to read simple music is desired, but not an absolute prerequisite for entrance into these classes. Time of recitation to be arranged.

15, 16. Sight Singing. Professor W. J. Frost.

The following courses form a part of the required work of all ministerial students.

The courses are arranged with a view to giving the student a practical working knowledge of music, so that he may be able (1) to read any ordinary composition at sight; (2) to express simple thought and emotion in music-language; (3) to construct harmonies for simple melodies.

Such attention will be given to character and construction of hymns and their consistent expression in song as will give the minister an intelligent, directive ability in this part of public worship.

That the student may have a broader outlook upon the field of Ecclesiastical Music, some attention will be given to the distinctive characteristics of the music of the different ages of the Christian Church.

Reading simple music based upon the plain diatonic scale. The elementary principles of Rhythm, taught by practical theme-writing, with simple motives as bases. Harmony in two parts. Hymn-reading and singing.

Fall term. Two hours per week. Tuesday and Thursday.

16. Reading music, introducing accidentals. Principles of Scale. Transposition. Theme-writing, with view of expressing thought and feeling. Harmony in four parts, employing the tonic, dominant, subdominant and dominant-seventh chords. Hymn-reading and singing.

Winter term. Two hours per week. Tuesday and Thursday.

For some years an increasing number of ministerial Special students have asked for such a course as would enable them Course. to attain a fair degree of proficiency in theology along with moderate literary training. This special course is now offered without Latin, Greek or Hebrew. In addition to all English Theology offered, the candidate for the Certificate of Graduation in English Theology must show a completion of the following studies: (See catalogue of Collegiate and Sub-Collegiate studies) English, b, b₁, b₂; c, c₁, c₂; d, d₁, d₂, and Freshman. History, c, c₁, c₂; d, d₁, d₂, and Freshman. Political Economy. Practical Ethics. Psychology. Science, attendance required on lectures in Chemistry 1 and 2, and Physics 2 and 2a. On the completion of these courses, the Certificate will be awarded.
