HISTORICAL SKETCH

It was soon after the organization of the Missouri Baptist General Association in the year 1835 that the initial steps were taken for the establishment of an institution of higher learning for young men, and in particular for candidates for the Christian ministry. No definite action was taken until 1843, when Dr. William Jewell of Columbia, Missouri, made to the General Association the conditional offer of ten thousand dollars in lands as a nucleus for the building and endowment of a college. The offer was not accepted until 1848. A charter was granted by the legislature and approved by the Governor, February 27, 1849.

In accordance with the terms of this charter the subscribers to the building and endowment funds met in Boonville for the purpose of selecting a location and fixing upon a name for the institution. After an animated contest the town of Liberty—the county seat of Clay County—was selected, and it was unanimously decided that the name of the institution should be William Jewell College.

The College was opened to students (in the old Liberty Academy) on January 1, 1850, with Rev. J. S. Dulin as Principal and Professor of Ancient Languages, and Rev. T. F. Lockett as Professor of Mathematics. Dr. Dulin served as Principal until the close of the session of 1851-52. Then on account of financial embarrassment the school survived the year 1852-53 as a private enterprise.

In the meantime the foundation had been laid for the building now known as Jewell Hall, and by the summer of 1853 the structure had advanced towards completion so far as to admit of occupancy and use. It was not finally completed until 1858. The building was begun under the immediate superintendence of Dr. Jewell, who died in August, 1852, from the effects of exposure to the intense heat of that summer.

In 1853, the trustees resuming full control, called to the presidency Rev. R. S. Thomas, D. D., from a professorship in the State University at Columbia. This administration continued until the summer of 1855, when new financial trouble caused the suspension of the College for the next two years.

The College reopened in the fall of 1857 under the presidency of Rev. William Thompson, LL. D. Dr. Thompson was a graduate of the University of Edinburg, and was a scholar of distinction and one of the most brilliant orators of his day. His administration lasted until June, 1861, when it was deemed prudent to suspend operations until by the return of peace, the conditions of the country should be more favorable for the prosecution of academic pursuits. There was, however, a school carried on in the college building during the years of the war whenever it was practicable.

Not until 1867 was it thought safe to reopen the institution. In June of this year, Rev. Thomas Rambaut of Louisville, Kentucky, was called to the presidency. He was a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, and was a man of wide experience in the management of educational enterprises. The first year of his incumbency was devoted to the reorganization and the increasing of endowment.

The reopening was on September 28, 1868, with Dr. Rambaut, President; R. B. Semple, Professor of Latin and French; A. F. Fleet, Professor of Greek and German; John F. Lanneau, Professor of Mathematics; James R. Eaton, Professor of Natural Sciences. Dr. Rambaut's administration ended in the spring of 1874 on account of ill health.

The office of President remained vacant until the summer of 1892. In the meantime the affairs of the College were administered by the Faculty, acting through a chairman. Professor William R. Rothwell was Chairman from 1873 to June, 1883, and Professor James G. Clark from that date until June, 1892.

The financial affairs of this period were in the hands of Lewis B. Ely of Carrollton, who had been a most ardent friend of the College. But previous to his election as financial agent in 1887, the Rev. W. Pope Yeaman, D. D., was appointed Chancellor of the College and for two years succeeded in enlarging the endowment.

In June, 1892, the productive endowment had been largely increased, several buildings erected, one of which was named in honor of the financial agent, Ely Hall, and several members added to the Faculty. Mr. Ely was also president of the Board of Trustees until his death in June, 1897.

In June 1892, Dr. John Priest Greene, pastor of the Third Baptist Church of St. Louis, was elected President of the College. Under his administration the number of students was greatly increased, a library with a capacity of 100,000 volumes was erected, also a modern dormitory and a most excellent science building. Many new departments of instruction were added. The crowning glory of Dr. Greene's presidency of twenty-seven years was that he held the College to the prime purpose of its establishment, namely, the thorough literary and scientific training of young men for Christian service.

On January 1, 1920, Dr. Greene resigned his office as President and was succeeded by Dr. David Jones Evans, who for many years had been Dean of Biblical Literature and Religious Education. Dr. Evans served until September 1, 1921, when he resigned to become Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kansas City, Missouri. Dr. Greene was again requested to act as President until a suitable person could be found for the place.

On March 29, 1923, the Trustees of the College elected as President, Dr. Harry Clifford Wayman of Louisville, Kentucky. Dr. Wayman was a professor in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is a scholar of recognized ability and a man of forceful Christian character.

HOW TO ENTER WILLIAM JEWELL COLLEGE

Graduates in the regular college entrance course of an approved high school or academy are admitted to William Jewell College without conditions. Such students should request an officer of the high school to send an official transcript of their entrance credits to the Dean of William Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri. The College prefers to have these credits on its own blanks which the student will find in the college bulletin.

Since freshmen, with some exceptions, are required to room and board in the college dormitories, they should select a room early in the summer and reserve it by sending Mrs. L. S. Cook $5.00 as part payment on the rent. The positions and prices of rooms may be found on pages 13 and 15.

In case a student is not a graduate of an approved high school, he should have an official transcript of his credits sent to the Dean and receive from him a statement as to the number of units that will be granted.

After presenting his entrance credits and reserving a room, the student has no other arrangements to make until coming to Liberty, then the Dean will give him a course of study, after which he will pay his fees and begin work.

Students coming from other colleges must bring honorable dismissals. Those wishing to enter later than two weeks after the beginning of a term should correspond with the Dean before coming to Liberty.

No one is permitted to enter a course of study later than two weeks after class work has begun, unless he can show that he has already done the missing work in a satisfactory manner in an accredited school.

ORDER

Every person accepted for matriculation is required to sign a pledge to obey the rules and regulations of the College. Students are granted every privilege consistent with good morals and good scholarship, but the Faculty reserves the right of sending any student home whose habits are considered inconsistent with the ideals of the institution.

Hazing in any form is contrary to the wishes of the Faculty and the Trustees of William Jewell College. To avoid this out-grown and dangerous practice, a special day is set aside each year during the first week of school for the so-called "Freshman-Sophomore Contest." Previous to, and after this event, no class fighting or hazing is permitted. Students violating this in any form will be sent home immediately.

Leaving town on week days or nights and using this time for other purposes than the pursuit of school duties are marks of an undesirable student.

A student who fails to comply with these regulations as well as with all others pertaining to honest work and moral living, may expect to be summoned before the Faculty to account for his actions.

PENALTY FOR LATE ENROLLMENT

On page 5 of this catalog will be found the periods of time set aside for classification and payment of fees for each term of the school year 1927-1928.

For failure to matriculate and be classified within the period set therefor, an extra fee of $3.00 will be charged and in addition to this an extra fee of $3.00 will be required for late payment of regular fees. Except that this penalty shall be $2.00 each in case of new students.

It is seldom necessary for a student to pay this penalty. The time set aside for classification is liberal in length, and arrangements for the payment of regular fees can be made previous to the beginning of class work.

REDUCED TUITION AND FINANCIAL AID

William Jewell College gives reduced tuition to ministerial students and sons and daughters of ministers. To secure reduced tuition each student for the ministry must present ordination papers, a license to preach or the formal approval of his church. See page 16.

Various opportunities are open to students by which they can earn a part, if not all, of their expenses. The president has a small private fund that is also available for students when they are in temporary need.

A loan fund of $3,000 is available for the benefit of students worthy of financial aid. All funds provided by churches or individuals and designated for certain students will be administered according to the wishes of the donors. It is desired that churches sending needy ministerial students to the College should either give them direct aid or provide for them through the College.

REGULATIONS AS TO FEES

Fees, room rent and board will not be refunded, except for protracted sickness, certified to by an attendant physician, and then only for so much time as the student was prevented thereby from attending to his college duties. In making refund, $5.00 will be charged as matriculation fee. The student activity fee is never refunded.

MEN'S DORMITORIES

There are two dormitories for men. They are both modern in equipment. The rooms are comfortably and neatly furnished with everything necessary except bed covers, sheets, pillow slips and towels, which are furnished by the occupants. Students are required to keep their own rooms clean and in good order.

These dormitories were built for the accommodation of students and not for the purpose of making money. Board and room are given at actual cost. It is the desire of the College to make the dormitories good places in which to live and study.

New Ely dining hall has a seating capacity of 250 and is equipped with every modern device for preparing food in the best approved manner. The College has its own dairy herd of fifteen pure-bred cows that are tested annually.

Discipline

The superintendent of the dormitory and the matron of the dining hall have complete control of the discipline of their respective departments.

No refund will be made to a student on either board or room if it becomes necessary to dismiss him from the dormitory on account of bad conduct, since the money paid by such a student does not meet the expense incurred by such behavior.

Freshmen Room and Board in Dormitories

Freshmen are required to room and board in the college dormitories. Exceptions will be made to this rule in case students live in the community or work in town for their board or room.

If it should become necessary to dismiss a freshman from the dormitory his future relation to the College will be determined by the Faculty.

Advanced Students

Upper classmen may room and board in the dormitories provided they reserve their rooms not later than May 15 of each year for the next session. This does not mean that upper classmen will be refused admittance to the dormitories at other times if sufficient space is available.

Reservation of Rooms

A plat of New Ely dormitory will be found on page 13. In order to reserve a room the student must send the "College Treasurer" $5.00 as part payment of the rent. This fee will be forfeited if the room is not occupied.

Cost of Board and Room

Board costs $60.00 per term of approximately 12 weeks. The cost of room rent depends upon the size and position of the room and the number of students occupying it. The College reserves the right to place at least two students in a room. The chart of prices will indicate the number of students that could occupy a room.

Board and room rent are payable in advance.

Board and Room

WOMEN

Miss Louise Ross, A. B. (Smith College), Directress of Girls

William Jewell College is glad to accept girls who desire a standard college education. Young girls of unsettled habits and deficient preparation are not advised to apply for admission. Every girl applying for admission must send to the President of the College a recommendation signed by her Sunday School teacher, superintendent or pastor. Girls who are studying for special Christian service and who expect reduced tuition, must bring to the President of the College a recommendation from their churches properly signed.

The College devotes itself to the so-called solid courses leading to the A. B. degree. The domestic sciences and household arts are not taught. Music, however, both vocal and instrumental, can be had under competent private instructors.

By choosing a sufficient number of courses in Education, a student may acquire the usual teacher's certificates. The College encourages students who expect to teach to graduate, and thereby make themselves eligible to hold positions in high schools approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

MELROSE HALL

This is a beautiful modern home for girls accommodating about sixty persons. Melrose Hall stands on a wooded hilltop overlooking the beautiful country north and east of Liberty. It contains, besides dormitory facilities, several class and conference rooms, a gymnasium, chapel and some other features for the comfort of its occupants. Two girls occupy a room. The cost for each person is from $25 to $30 per term of twelve weeks, according to the size and position of the room. Room and board can be had in these dormitories at reasonable prices; in fact the same prices will obtain here as do in the boys' dormitory. All non-resident girls will be expected to live in the college dormitory.

Everything is furnished for rooms except towels, sheets, pillow slips, bed covering and window curtains. Room and board cost from $85 to $90 per term of 12 weeks each, payable in advance. There are three terms in the school year of 12 weeks each.

The total necessary year's expense (including tuition and fees) for a woman rooming and boarding in this dormitory should not exceed $450.00.

To reserve a room the student should send $5.00 to Mrs. L. S. Cook, book-keeper. This will be credited on the room rent.

The A. R. Levering scholarship is awarded to the sophomore making the most satisfactory record in his freshman year at William Jewell College.

The L. B. Ely scholarship is awarded to the junior making the most satisfactory record as a sophomore.

The John Sillers scholarship is awarded to the senior making the most satisfactory record in his junior year.

These scholarships provide full tuition for one year and are awarded to applicants by the Faculty. They do not include the Student Activity fee.

In view of the long and signally useful career of Dr. James Gregory Clark, who for more than fifty years wrought so faithfully and efficiently in William Jewell College, not only as a distinguished professor of mathematics, but as an exemplar of the highest type of Christian manhood, and in lieu of a gift from the heirs of Dr. Clark, the Board of Trustees of William Jewell College hereby creates and establishes three scholarships for ministerial students, to be known as "The James G. Clark Memorial Scholarships."

THE MARSTON SCHOLARSHIP

The Marston Scholarship yields $200 and is for a William Jewell

College graduate in Brown University. It is open to competition under rules prescribed by the Faculty. The scholarship was founded by Mr. E. L. Marston, son of Rev. S. W. Marston, D. D., who was for three years, from 1873, Superintendent of State Missions for the General Association. Dr. Marston is remembered especially as contributing many valuable specimens to the college museum.

PRIZES

The William M. Fitch Prize—William M. Fitch, '93, offers a $20.00 gold medal annually to the student who writes the best essay on some specified sociological subject.

The Frank B. Hearne Medal In Chemistry—By the will of Mrs. Roberta Lee C. Hearne of Independence, Missouri, "the Trustees of William Jewell College are directed to purchase annually a medal to cost approximately $50.00, such medal to be known as the Frank B. Hearne Medal to be awarded annually as a scholarship medal for excellency in the study of chemistry. At the discretion of the Trustees, and with the approval of the recipient, the sum of $50.00 in gold coin may be awarded. The bequest is in affectionate remembrance of her husband, Frank B. Hearne, whose college education was obtained at William Jewell." This prize will in general be awarded to a member of the graduating class, but in exceptional circumstances may be given to a lower class man.

NON-COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships are governed by the College and will be granted to applicants whom, the College thinks, most worthy of receiving them.

Students pursuing any mode of living not conducive to economy or engaging in extravagant habits will not be given scholarships.

The R. E. Turner Scholarship is available for a literary student. The following scholarships are open to ministerial students alone. The W. B. Ballev Scholarship, The W. F. Elliott Scholarship, The Mrs. Mary Elliott Scholarship, The H. W. Gilliam Scholarship, The Mildred Ely Montgomery Scholarship, The Thos. F. Melvin and Wife Scholarship, The William M. Senter Scholarship, The Joint Scholarship of William Anderson Crouch, a Baptist Preacher, and Martha Alice Crouch, His Wife.

Besides these scholarships, there is a scholarship fund maintained by the friends of the College from which needy and worthy students may receive aid.

Students receiving these scholarships are required to work for the College at least one hour per day and are expected to room and board in the college dormitories.

REDUCED TUITION

Students studying for the ministry or for special Christian service, and sons and daughters of ministers, receive reduced tuition, that is, they pay only $60.00 per year. In view of the increased cost of instruction and in operating the College, the Trustees have found it necessary to require all unmarried students who thus benefit by reduced tuition to live in our dormitories. For the same reason the Trustees desire that all students who benefit from scholarships wherever possible, live in our dormitories.

WORKING ONE'S WAY

About one hundred William Jewell students work for a part or all of their living expense.

There is need for janitor service, table waiting, carrying papers, house cleaning and various kinds of odd jobs. A good many students work in stores, garages, printing offices and restaurants.

It is generally impossible for the College to secure work for a student unless he comes to Liberty some few weeks before school opens and helps in finding employment.

Students wishing work on the campus or about the college buildings should address the President.

CHOOSING A COLLEGE

The choice of a college is not so important a matter to persons seeking only a general education, as it is to students having definite professional aims in view.

Professional schools, especially those of engineering and medicine, impose rigorous preliminary requirements upon their students. The first two years of college work nearly always determine the capacity and fitness of a student for the line of study he has in mind. If this work is done in a poor school or poorly done in a good school, the student will suffer a serious handicap in pursuing his advanced studies. The significance of this latter statement will be evident to any medical student who has attempted to enter any of the standard medical colleges. For example, the Harvard Medical School seldom accepts more than fifty per cent of the applicants from Harvard University itself and thirty per cent of those from other colleges and universities. The same might be said of the medical departments of some of our neighboring universities. It is therefore evident that graduation from a large university itself does not insure admission to the medical department of that institution.

What then should a student do to make sure that he will not be denied first class training after doing his pre-medical work? The answer is this—he must not only do his pre-medical work in well equipped laboratories and under competent instructors but he must acquire high standing in his classes. The dull or lazy student will find it difficult to gain admission to a good medical college even if he is a graduate of a standard university.

STANDING OF WILLIAM JEWELL

William Jewell College is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and is also approved by the Association of American Universities.

The latest revised list of colleges and universities approved by the Association of American Universities contains five Missouri institutions of which two are universities and three are colleges. The colleges are:

William Jewell College;

Park College;

Drury College.

Credits from these colleges are accepted in American and European universities.

There are other standardizing agencies, but many of them are still liberal in judging the excellency of a college.

CHAPEL

All students are required to attend chapel exercises, which are held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 10:35. This convocation is not only for the purpose of holding religious exercises, but also to hear public announcements and to cultivate college spirit and good fellowship.

CAMPUS AND BUILDINGS

Campus

The College campus consists of about one hundred acres of wooded upland situated just within the northern and eastern corporation limits of the city of Liberty. Most of the buildings are located on "The Old Hill" of historic associations.

Athletic Field

The athletic field is at the foot of the College Hill and contains twenty acres. There is a quarter-mile cinder track enclosing the football gridiron and the baseball diamond.

A two hundred and twenty yard straight-a-way cinder track wide enough for twelve running abreast is provided. There is also a number of excellent tennis courts.

Gano Assembly Hall

The friends of the College, realizing the great inconvenience suffered for years because of a lack of an adequate room for daily assemblies, have recently given in cash and pledges sufficient money to build a new assembly hall. The principal donor to this much needed building on the Hill was a friend in Kansas City. The building is named The "Gano Assembly Hall" in honor of Reverend John Gano, the great grandfather of this donor. This distinguished minister of the Gospel established the First Baptist church in New York City, served as chaplain in Washington's army and enjoyed the most intimate friendship of that great American. The building is now completed, being located at the extreme north end of the quadrangle and facing south. It seats about 1100 persons. The administrative offices are also in this building.

Gymnasium

The gymnasium is situated at the edge of the athletic field and contains standard basket-ball and hand-ball courts with a full complement of baths, lockers, squad rooms, etc., as well as other equipment. We are glad to announce that the friends and alumni of the College have subscribed funds for a modern fireproof gymnasium. This is indeed a forward step inasmuch as the old gymnasium building has become quite inadequate to the needs of the College. Work on the new structure will begin in the near future. When this building is finished, William Jewell will have a gymnasium second to none in the state.

Jewell Hall

Jewell Hall is the oldest of the college buildings on the Hill. It was built in the early fifties, Dr. Jewell, the founder of the College, himself superintending the work. It is a brick structure containing the recitation and lecture rooms of languages, literature and history. The literary societies also have rooms in this building. The Conservatory of Music is on the third floor.

Marston Science Hall

The science hall is located at the southern extremity of "The Hill" and contains the class rooms and laboratories of biology, chemistry and physics as well as some allied subjects. Most of the first and second floors are occupied by the department of chemistry. The third floor is given over to physics and the fourth floor contains the museum and the department of biology. This building is of modern, fireproof construction, and is valued at $225,000. It is especially designed for science work and is a model of its kind.

Marston Science Hall was named in honor of Doctor S. W. Marston who had great interest in the development of the physical and biological sciences. Mr. E. W. Marston, son of Doctor Marston, contributed very liberally to the erection and equipment of the building.

The Library

The library occupies a handsome modern library building, the gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the College. It contains 34,154 volumes classified according to the Dewey system and fully cataloged. The reference room is equipped with many of the latest and best works of reference. The reading room receives regularly 137 leading American and foreign periodicals besides 7 daily newspapers.

The Spurgeon Collection, consisting of over 7,000 volumes, was the private library of the late Rev. Charles Haddon Spurgeon.

A six hundred dollar collection of modern poetry and drama is now available, the gift of the class of 1920.

The archives of the Missouri Baptist Historical Society, of which Professor R. P. Rider is president, are in the library building and contain much valuable Baptist history, as does also the College library.

The library is open every week day from 7.30 a. m. to 6 p. m. except Saturday afternoons and at the chapel hour.

Melrose Hall

This is the new modern dormitory for girls. It stands on a beautiful open campus north of the president's home.

New Ely Hall

New Ely Hall is the main dormitory of the College and will accommodate about 200 students. It is situated on the College Drive and overlooks the athletic field. It is of brick, four stories in height, fireproof and entirely modern. The dormitory is arranged on the unit plan, each small group of students being provided with private lavatories and baths. A large lobby with fireplaces is located centrally for the social life of the students. The lower floor contains the dining rooms and kitchen. The dining rooms will seat 350 persons. The kitchen is sanitary and modern and is complete in every respect.

Old Ely Hall

The first floor of this building is used for women's rest rooms; the second and third floors for dormitory purposes.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRANCE AND GRADUATION

Graduates in the college entrance course of a first class high school are admitted to the freshman class without conditions. For others, fifteen units are required. These must include:

- 2 units of one foreign language
- 3 units of English
- 2 units of mathematics (1 algebra, 1 plane geometry)
- 1 unit of laboratory science
- 1 unit of history
- 6 units elective

A unit of work is the standard unit of the high schools, approved by the Superintendent of Public Schools of Missouri. Any work done in an approved high school will be accepted for entrance, but not in greater quantity than is recommended by the department of education of the state. The amount of credit given for work done in non-approved high schools will be determined by the Dean.

By a high school college entrance course is meant a course given largely to so-called solids and not to a preponderance of the lighter subjects such as vocational and commercial studies.

A student offering 15 units and deficient in not more than one unit, caused by a lack of specific requirements, may enter college as a conditioned freshman, but this condition must be removed by the beginning of his sophomore year. It is sometimes necessary for a student to make up deficient units in the college department, in which case 12 hours will count as one unit. Examinations for college entrance will be permitted, but not later than two weeks after the student enters school.

DEGREE

The A. B. degree will be conferred upon students who have satisfied the entrance requirements and have completed 186 hours of work in the manner hereafter prescribed.

PLAN OF MAJORS AND MINORS

1. All college courses are classified in a general way under three groups which, for convenience of reference, will be designated by I, II, III, as follows:

I. Latin, Greek, French, German and Spanish.

II. Mathematics, chemistry, physics and biology.

III. History and political science, the social sciences, philosophy, education, Bible and advanced English.

2. On entering college a student is required to take in his freshman year the following subjects:

Freshman English, one foreign language and one subject from either mathematics, physics, chemistry or biology.

All students in the freshman and sophomore years are required to spend at least three hours per week in some form of athletic sport approved by the Faculty.

3. Three term hours of hygiene and sanitation are required for graduation.

4. After completing the freshman work a student must choose one of the twelve majors and its three prescribed minors as shown in the table of majors and minors. A major is nine terms of work in one subject (unless otherwise stated) taken in regular sequence, and of not less than four hours per week. A minor is six terms of work with such exceptions as appear in the table.

All other work necessary to make the 186 hours for graduation is elective.

The maximum amount of credit a student may receive in one department is sixty hours.

5. Any senior having fulfilled all other requirements for graduation with his class except the lack of not more than twelve (12) term hours may, by permission of the Faculty, do this work in absentia, and thereupon be graduated as of his class, provided he complete this deficiency before February 1st of the following year. Such a student may participate only in the graduating exercises of the class following the completion of his work, but will be graduated as of his own class.

6. A student having completed in William Jewell College the required work for graduation may, with the approval of the Faculty, finish the work for the A. B. degree by one year of satisfactory work done in an A-grade technical school. (This privilege will not be granted to a student of low scholastic ability or one having more than a normal year's work to complete for graduation.)

PREPARATION FOR PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS

By the term "pre-professional courses" is meant a certain amount of regular college work, usually two years, that is necessary for entrance to professional schools, such as schools of law, medicine, and commerce.

PRE-MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS

Some of the best medical colleges strongly urge young men to secure the bachelor's degree before studying medicine. See catalogs of Johns Hopkins University, Columbia University, the University of Pennsylvania and Washington University. No first-class medical college will admit a student without at least, (a) a four-year high school course and (b) a two-year college course of at least 90 term hours (60 semester hours) of work.

This two-year college course must include certain subjects which vary in quantity for different medical schools. In selecting a college in which to do pre-medical work, its is best to choose one giving all of the pre-medical requirements of the particular medical college one wishes to attend. It is further advisable to note that such schools as Harvard University and Rush Medical College require the applicant to have a high standing in his preparatory work.

By sending six cents to the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals, 535 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, a twenty-six page pamphlet on the Choice of a Medical College may be secured. This pamphlet gives, besides other instructive data, the following schedule of the usual two-year pre-medical course.

Chemistry—33 term hours (22 semester hours), 12 of which must be general inorganic chemistry with 6 hours of laboratory work, and 10 hours of organic chemistry.

Physics—12 term hours of which 3 must be laboratory work. Trigonometry is urged as a prerequisite to this course.

Biology—12 term hours of which at least 6 must be laboratory work.

Botany alone is not accepted.

English—8 term hours.

Foreign Language—A reading knowledge of French or German.

Non-science subjects may complete the two years work.

With the exception of the additional courses, indicated in parentheses, this schedule meets the premedical requirements of such schools as the Universities of Illinois, Iowa (two years Latin), Missouri (bacteriology), Pennsylvania and Wisconsin, also Northwestern University, Harvard (student must have belonged to the upper third of his pre-medical classes), Rush Medical College (ten hours of Latin and high standing in high school), and Washington University (embryology).

Johns Hopkins University makes the following requirements:

Chemistry—240 hours of class room work and 500 hours of laboratory work. The former must include 60 hours in organic chemistry and a short course in physical chemistry; while the latter must include one year's work in quantitative analysis and 120 hours in organic chemistry.

Physics—90 hours of class room work and 90 hours of laboratory work.

Biology—90 hours of class room work and 180 hours of laboratory work.

Language—A reading knowledge of French and German and an acquaintance with Latin are expected.

It must be borne in mind that it is difficult for the average student to complete a pre-medical course in two years, especially if he meets the requirements of the best medical colleges.

The following are the William Jewell two-year pre-medical courses:

PRE-LEGAL COURSE

A young man may enter law schools of a certain class with only a high school education as a foundation, but his chances of attaining distinction in his profession are small. The profession of law needs a broad, firm foundation. Such schools as Harvard University, University of Chicago, and the University of Pennsylvania will not accept a student in their law departments without a four-year high school course and also a thoro four-year college course. Even with these prerequisites a student may be refused admittance on the ground of poor high school or college records.

Most of the good law schools require the high school work and two years of college work, i. e. at least 90 term hours (60 semester hours) of college work.

The following courses are approved by the Association of American Law Schools and recommended to those doing only two years of pre-law work.

English, 2 years. Latin or Greek, 2 years.

German or French, 2 years. Mathematics or science, 1 year. History, 2 years (including English and American constitutional history) and psychology. If more than 2 years are taken, additional courses in history, natural science and courses in philosophy, political science, economics and sociology are suggested.

This two-year course fulfills the pre-law requirements of such universities as Cornell, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri and Wisconsin. A minimum of 3 years college work is required at Northwestern and Columbia Universities. Other universities have a requirement of only one year of college work, but there is a tendency to raise this amount.

William Jewell is fully equipped to give pre-legal preparation. In addition to class room work, there is a library of 30,000 volumes and a reading room containing 156 leading American and foreign periodicals.

The following two years of work are suggested for those not able to finish college before entering law school.

The foreign language requirements in these courses depend upon the amount of foreign language the student had in high school and also upon the specific requirement of the law school in which he wishes to pursue his professional studies.

PRE-ENGINEERING COURSES

In a bulletin of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for 1920 is the following paragraph: "The student intending to enter the Institute should bear in mind that the broader his intellectual training in any direction, and the more extensive his general acquirements, the greater will be the advantages he may expect to gain."

Although the best engineering schools will admit students with only a four-year high school course, yet a more thoro preparation is desirable, especially in mathematics and physics. Cornell insists on 3 years of foreign language. A large percentage of engineering students fail in their first year because of inadequate preparation. This would probably not be the case if all high schools sustained a high standard of work, and if in addition to this the students knew from the first what profession they were going to choose.

A year or two of college work is often necessary to confirm the wisdom of a student's choice of a life's work.

PRE-COMMERCE COURSE

The preparatory requirements for other professions than law, medicine and engineering are not very well standardized. For example, the departments of commerce and finance of some universities require a prerequisite of only a high school education, while others require graduation from college.

PREPARATION FOR TEACHING

The Department of Education offers three full years of work in education, including such requirements as are necessary to receive the state and subsequently a life certificate to teach in Missouri. Well prepared college graduates are eligible to teach in high schools approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

If a student has in mind some particular professional school for which he is preparing, it would be advisable to find out what standing the above courses would give him in that institution. This can be done by submitting these courses directly to the university in question.

There is a growing tendency among the best universities to urge young men to complete the full four-year college course before entering a professional school. See conditions for acquiring teacher's certificates under the Department of Education.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. The A. B. degree will not be granted to any one who has not done at least 45 term hours of his senior work in this college. Not more than 12 hours of the work of the senior year may be done in absentia; except that if a student has done his sophomore and junior work in this college, he may by permission of the Faculty complete this work in an approved technical school. See 5 and 6 on page 23.

2. The College admits no special students, except that, by permission of the Dean, a person may take not more than two subjects and not be charged full tuition.

3. College students are limited to 18 hours of work per week. Less than 12 hours of work per week cannot be carried without the permission of the Dean.

4. Students are not permitted to drop or exchange a study later than one week after recitations begin, without consent of the Dean.

5. The College reserves the privilege of omitting courses, the demand for which is not sufficient to justify their being given.

Incomplete Work

If at the close of any term a student's grade is reported as "incomplete," he must make up the deficiency prior to the examination period of the next following term or a grade of F will be recorded and the student barred from further participation in any course to which the deficiency is a prerequisite.

Correspondence

The College will not accept for graduation work done by correspondence from any institution except those of high standing having regularly organized correspondence departments, and then in no greater amount than one-fourth of the number of term hours required for graduation. Not more than fifteen term hours of correspondence work will be accepted in any one department of instruction.

Classification

To be classified as Freshman a student must present 15 units as described on page 21.

To be classified Sophomore all conditions for entrance must have been removed and at least 36 term hours of college work completed.

To be classified Junior, at least 84 term hours, and as Senior at least 132 term hours must be presented, and in addition to this there must also be at least 84 and 132 honor points respectively to entitle students to these classifications.

In each of these cases the student's work must be of such a kind as to lead to graduation in the normal time.

Grading, Examination, Honor Points

1. Grades are expressed by the letters A, B, C, D and F. The first four letters indicate grades ranging in order from 100 per cent down to 60 per cent. F means failure.

2. The grade A entitles a student to three honor points per credit hour. B carries with it two such honor points per hour and C one honor point per hour. No honor points are given for the grade D. In arriving at student averages the grade F is assigned one negative honor point per credit hour, but this is not done when determining a student's classification.

The number of honor points won by a student determines his scholastic rating.

3. In classes of more than 14 students the number receiving a grade of A is limited to 25 per cent of the class.

4. No student is admitted to a final examination in a subject which the number of his absences has reached 25 per cent of the total number of recitations.

5. In order to be admitted to a final examination a student must have acquired a class grade of at least D (60 per cent). No second examinations are permitted because of failures, except that a senior may be granted one re-examination as a senior privilege.
