Head - It's Easy to Get Help When you don't need it, and Hard when you do.

Under 1st sect.

(from a diary.) "Down to my last dollar, and my old friends don't seem to be able to help me. When I come near them they act as if they expected a touch, and treat me cobbly."

Under 2nd sect.

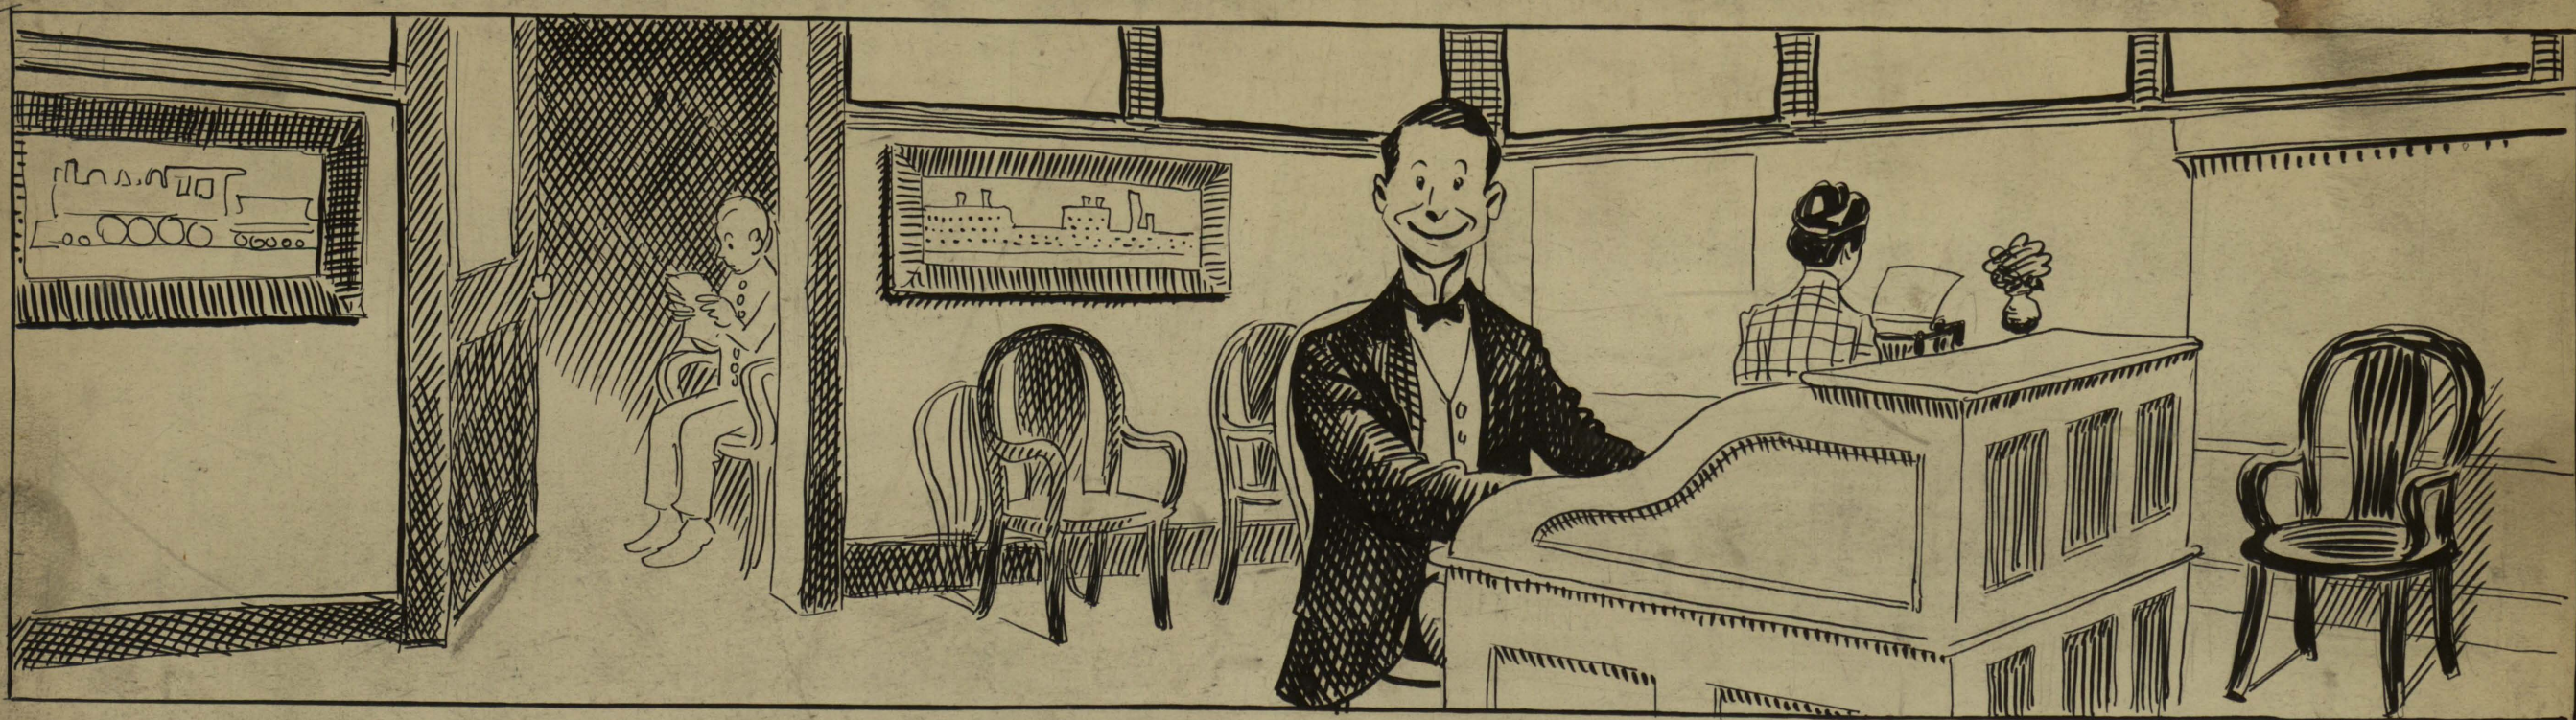

"Well I've got to give up my room, and I'm down to my last cent. I can't get work any place, and I've tried twenty places if I've tried one."

Under 3rd sect.

Two years later. - "Well, I've worked up to assistant manager."

Under 4th sect.

Five years later. - "As I was coming out of the bank today I met some of my old friends. They are all anxious to help me and said if I ever needed them to let them know."
